LUISE MEYER-SCHUTZMEISTER MEMORIAL AWARD

The Luise Meyer-Schutzmeister Memorial Award was established by the Association for Women in Science Educational Foundation with donations made in memory of nuclear physicist Luise Meyer-Schutzmeister, Senior Physicist at the Argonne National Laboratory. The $1,000 award is presented annually to an outstanding woman graduate student in physics.

Application forms may be obtained by contacting: kerry.coehran@wmich.edu.

Application, transcripts and recommendations must be received by Professor Hardie no later than February 1, 2007 for the 2007 award.
